To Whom It May Concern:

The Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association has evolved from a small group of horsemen who united in 1963 to the top thoroughbred breeding program in the United States. The Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association will award four (4) scholarships, each valued at $1,000, at the upcoming Louisiana Champions Day on December 10, 2011 at The Fair Grounds in New Orleans, Louisiana. The winners will be announced after the fifth race and photographs will be taken with the winners. The races begin at 12:10 p.m. and the student must be there to register between 11:10 a.m. and 12:10 p.m. at the designated booth.

The requirements for the scholarship are as follows:

- * Must be a college student that will be enrolled full time for Spring 2012.
- * Must be in good standing with the college.
- * Must be present to win.

The scholarship will be deposited directly to the student's account at the college. The student is asked to know the name and address of the college that they are attending.

The Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association looks forward to seeing many students at the event and is excited to give them the opportunity to win a scholarship.

Sincerely,
Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association
